

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. When we went on the "no call" list in Indiana, our telemarketing calls stopped cold. It was WONDERFUL! I used to receive 14 calls a week and now I receive none to one per week. The Indiana's Telephone Privacy law is a good plan, don't change it!